

MARRICKVILLE BOWLING & RECREATION CLUB LTD
(ACN 001 037 029)

NOTICE OF EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

Sunday, 25 May 2025

Notice is hereby given that an Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) of Marrickville Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd (Club) will be held at the Club's premises, 91 Sydenham Rd, Marrickville NSW 2204, on Sunday, 25 May 2025 at 10:00am.

BUSINESS

To consider, and if thought fit, pass the Special Resolution to repeal and replace the Club's Constitution.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

That:

- the Constitution of Marrickville Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd ACN 001 037 029 (Club) be repealed; and
- the Constitution, in the form presented to this Extraordinary General Meeting and signed by the Club President for the purpose of identification, be adopted as the Club's new Constitution.

EXPLANATORY NOTES REGARDING THE SPECIAL RESOLUTION

About the Special Resolution

- 1 The resolution to adopt a new Constitution will be put to members for consideration as a special resolution in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act).
- 2 If the Special Resolution is passed, then the Club's current Constitution will be entirely replaced by the new Constitution.
- 3 A hard copy of both the current Constitution, and the proposed new Constitution which will be presented to the members at the Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM), is available to members from bar staff on request. Members may collect copies during the Club's normal office hours, or request a copy by email. Otherwise, members can review the copy of each document made available on the Club's website: <https://www.marrickvillebowlingclub.com.au/>.
- 4 The main purpose of the new Constitution is to update the Club's rules to reflect current law and best practice applicable to registered clubs and the Club's operations, and to assist with streamlining the Club's operations.
- 5 The primary reason for proposing the changes as one new Constitution is to address the many different changes, both substantive and less substantive (such as formatting, typographical errors and more minor corrections) under the one special resolution, otherwise it would require an extensive number of special resolutions to be considered and passed at this EGM. The Club has not undertaken a substantial update of its Constitution for some years and therefore the Board determined it was more appropriate to undertake a comprehensive update and propose this as an updated Constitution to replace the existing one.

- 6 The Board encourages members to read the proposed new Constitution carefully and attend the EGM to vote on this important resolution for our Club.

Summary of important matters in the new Constitution

- 7 These explanatory notes provide a non-exhaustive overview of the proposed changes to the current Constitution. Not all changes are set out in these explanatory notes, including those which are of a more administrative nature. Only the more significant matters for consideration by members in relation to the new Constitution are addressed, including those matters set out below. Notwithstanding this summary, the Board encourages members to read through both the current and proposed new Constitution carefully to familiarise themselves with all proposed changes.

Administrative changes

- 8 The amendments include some updates with reference to current legislation and more modern language to make the Constitution more suitable for members. For example:
  - (a) Gender-specific references have been removed and gender-neutral language has been adopted as all classes of membership are open to all genders.
  - (b) Rules have been streamlined, and certain rules that reflect obligations under the Registered Clubs Act 1976 (NSW) (Registered Clubs Act) or Corporations Act which do not legally need to be included in the Constitution have been omitted.
  - (c) There has been improvement to formatting, so that rules are easier to read and understand.

Objects

- 9 The proposed new objects of the Club are relatively similar to the objects contained in existing rule 18 of the current Constitution, but have been simplified to shorten the length of the Constitution.
- 10 A company can do whatever it is lawfully able to do, subject to any restrictions contained in its constitution. Therefore, the absence of any particular object or activity in the Club's Constitution does not mean that the Club cannot undertake or promote that object or activity.

Income and property of the Club

- 11 The income and property rules (see rule 5 in the new Constitution) retain the same restrictions on distributing the Club's property or money to members. However, the rules have been updated to recognise the circumstances where payments may be made to members, including for remuneration to officers or employees, and honoraria to Directors or other committee members in accordance with the Registered Clubs Act.

Limited liability and distribution of Club property on winding up

- 12 There is no change to the maximum members' guarantee of $1 (which would only be payable if the Club is ever wound up). Members are referred to rule 6.1 of the new Constitution.
- 13 There is no material change to the rules relating to each member's limited liability and the mechanism for distributing the Club's property on winding up. Members are referred to rule 6.2 of the new Constitution.

Membership classes

- 14 There is no change to the number or nature of the Club's membership classes, which have been carried across to into the proposed new Constitution.
- 15 To improve the flow of the Constitution, the eligibility requirements of Full Bowling members from existing rule 44 of the current Constitution have been slightly re-formatted and moved to new rule 7.3(a)(iii) for easy reading. The wording of such requirements remains substantially similar to existing rule 44 of the current Constitution.
- 16 For simplicity, the express prohibitions on the rights of Junior members contained within existing rule 28 of the current Constitution (for e.g., preventing Junior members from using certain parts of the clubhouse, attending or voting at meetings of the Club, or introducing guests) have been omitted from new rule 7.3(c). These restrictions are adequately addressed under law, or are otherwise clear elsewhere in the Constitution (for e.g., only Full Bowling members or Life members are able to attend and vote at meetings of the Club).
- 17 The eligibility criteria for election to Life membership has been updated in new rule 7.6 to clarify that a person seeking election to Life membership must be nominated by 2 financial Full members (other than junior members of the Club), within the nomination to be approved by the Board at its discretion. This process has typically been followed by the Club, but was not specified in existing rule 30.
- 18 The power of the Board under existing rule 69(o) to transfer an Ordinary member to another class of Ordinary membership has been moved to new rule 7.5 for chronological reading.
- 19 The restriction preventing persons whose personal place of residence was within 5 kilometres of the Club from becoming a Temporary member of the Club has been removed, to align with the NSW Government's 2024 'Vibrancy Reforms' legislative changes.

Rights of members

- 20 New rule 8.2(b) clarifies that Full members are entitled to vote in the election of the Selector and be nominated for, elected to and hold the position of Selector. This is consistent with the Club's existing practices, but is not expressly clear in the existing Constitution.

Cessation of membership

- 21 New rule 9.1(a) contains clearer circumstances around when a person's membership will cease, namely upon: resignation, death, or failure to pay subscriptions or other money owed to the Club. Persons will otherwise cease to be a member if they are expelled by the Board as part of the Club's disciplinary proceedings.

Disciplining of members

- 22 New rule 13 regarding member disciplinary proceedings remains substantially similar, but with some recommended changes. For example:
- (a) the Club may now distribute a notice of charge or a notice of suspension or expulsion to a member electronically; and
  - (b) the rules have been clarified to make it abundantly clear that if a member is found guilty of a charge and has attended the meeting, then the Board must give the member an opportunity to address the Board on penalty.

Board

- 23 The Board is currently comprised of 7 Directors, which is fewer than the 9 Directors presently prescribed under current rule 57. New rule 17.1 therefore proposes to clarify that the Board will consist of 7 members, being the President, Vice President, a Treasurer, a Bowls Secretary and 3 other Directors. This new rule 17.1 is consistent with the Club's current practices.
- 24 For existing members, the eligibility criteria to stand for election or be appointed/elected to the Board will remain substantially similar to those requirements set out in the current Constitution. However, persons who become members after the introduction of this new Constitution will need to remain a member for a continuous period of 5 years to be eligible to stand for election or to be appointed/elected to the Board.
- 25 The Club proposes to change its election frequency so that the Board is elected in accordance with the triennial rule under the Registered Clubs Act, instead of the current biennial election system. Under new rule 17.3:
- (a) the Club will hold a Board election prior to each AGM, but only a certain number of positions will be elected in each year;
  - (b) for the 2026 Board election only, all current Directors will vacate their positions and the members will elect 7 Directors to the Board, with the elected Directors then drawing lots to determine whether their first term will be for 1, 2 or 3 years;

(c) from the 2027 Board election onward, the Director positions up for election will be for three year terms.

26 New rule 17.4 specifies that a candidate for election to the Board must obtain a Director Identification Number prior to delivering their nomination form to the Secretary. Furthermore, new rule 17.4 clarifies that completed nomination forms must be provided to the Secretary by 6pm on the day which is 35 days before the Club's AGM. The nomination procedure has otherwise remained substantially similar to those set out in the current Constitution.

27 New rule 17.5 provides further clarification for the election procedure if the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number required to be elected and a ballot must be held, with the process otherwise remaining substantially similar to what is provided in the current Constitution.

Board vacancies

28 The process for dealing with vacancies on the Board has remained substantially similar to what is set out in the current Constitution, however the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant has been clarified.

Proceedings of the Board

29 New rule 19.1 provides that the Board must meet at least once each quarter instead of once per month. This is consistent with recent changes to the Registered Clubs Act, and provides the Board with greater flexibility as to how and when it will meet.

General Meetings and Proceedings at General Meetings

30 New rule 24.5 enables the Club to hold a General Meeting by electronic means, which is consistent with recent changes to the Corporations Act.

31 Existing rule 92 has been deleted so that the Constitution is more consistent with sections 249D, 249E and 249F of the Corporations Act. These matters are addressed in new rule 24.2.

32 The quorum for General Meetings (save for those meetings called by at least 5% of the Club's members) is 20 members present and entitled to vote at that meeting. This remains unchanged from the current Constitution.

33 Existing rule 94 has been deleted so that the Constitution is more consistent with sections 249N and 249O of the Corporations Act.

Indemnity to officers

34 New rule 28 sets out the indemnities offered to the officers of the Club including the Directors and secretary permissible under the Corporations Act. This is more expansive than corresponding rules 124 and 125 in the current Constitution but remains consistent with the Corporations Act.

Selectors

- 35 New rule 22 clarifies the eligibility criteria and election process for the position of Selector, which remains substantially similar to the process presently followed by the Club. The nomination process is now stepped out and is easier to follow.

General Notes

- 36 In accordance with rule 126 of the current Constitution, this Special Resolution will be passed only if at least a 75% majority of the members present and voting (being eligible to do so) vote in favour of the respective resolution.
- 37 In accordance with the current Constitution, only financial Full Bowling Members and Life Members shall be entitled to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting and to vote on the Special Resolution.
- 38 Proxy voting is not permitted and employees are prohibited from voting under the Registered Clubs Act.
- 39 The Special Resolution and proposed new Constitution must be considered as a whole and the substance of the resolution cannot be amended by motions from the floor of the meeting.
- 40 As mentioned in paragraph numbered 3, members may obtain a hard copy of the current Constitution, the proposed new Constitution, and the Notice of EGM (including the Explanatory Notes regarding the Special Resolution) from bar staff on request. Otherwise, members can review the copy of each document on the Club's website: <https://www.marrickvillebowlingclub.com.au/>
- 41 The Board of Directors invites Full Bowling Members and Life Members (being those members eligible to vote on the Special Resolution) to submit any submissions in relation to the proposed Constitution via the Club's email (info@mvillebowling.com.au) or our website by no later than 5:00pm on Thursday, 15 May 2025. (NB: responses will be provided following the closing date at the discretion of the Board of Directors).
